The screenshot displays the PlayHT web interface for generating speech. At the top, there are two radio button options: "Standard voices" (selected) with the subtitle "Natural sounding voices", and "Premium Voices" with the subtitle "Neural voices powered by AI". Below these are three dropdown menus: "English (US)", "Cerys", and "Regular". A large text input area in the center contains the placeholder text "Type here to generate speech...". At the bottom left is a "Listen" button, and at the bottom right is a dark button labeled "Try the full version!".

Stelling 1

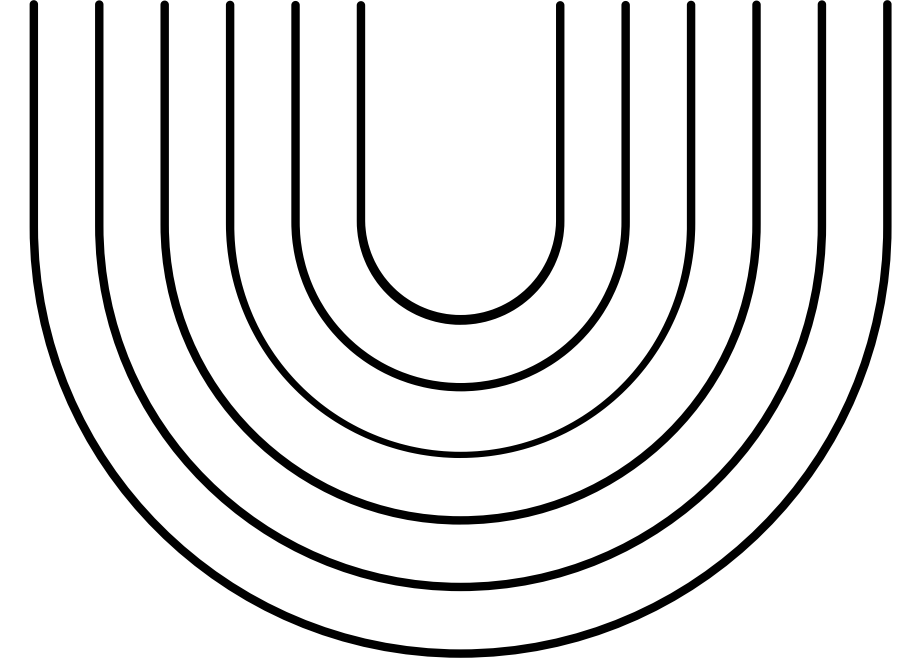

Ik ben bezorgd over de toepassingen van ElevenLabs.

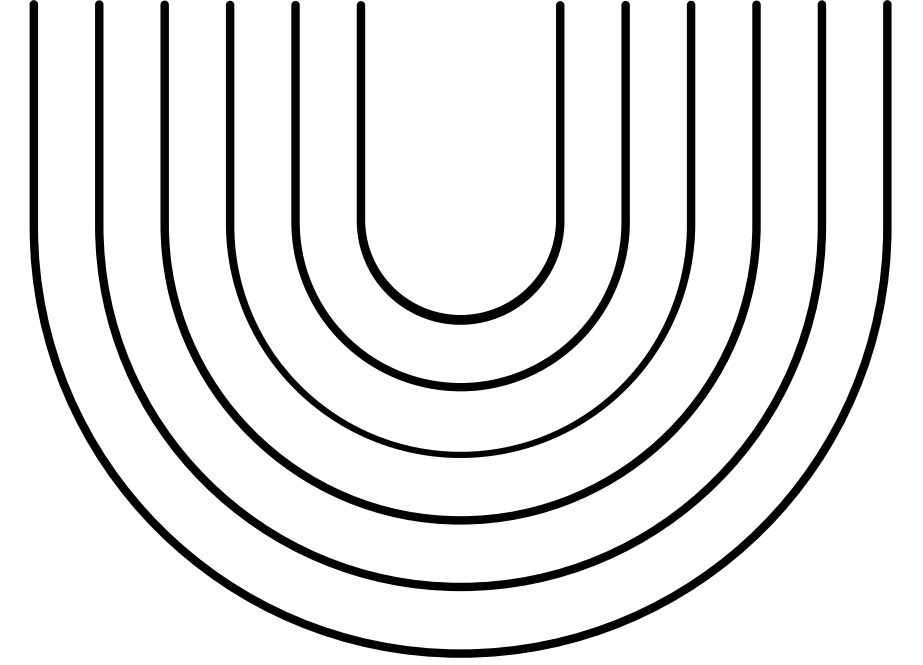

Stelling 2

Het is toegestaan om de stem van stemacteurs te clonen en te gebruiken in films en andere media.

Stelling 3

Het is toegestaan om gegenereerde stemmen te gebruiken in media zonder dit te vermelden.

Stelling 4

Ik denk dat ik onderscheid kan maken tussen een echte stem en een gegenereerde stem.
